

Conflict of Interest Policy

Adopted by The Maryam Mottaghi Foundation

This Conflict of Interest Policy is designed to help directors, officers, and employees of The Maryam Mottaghi Foundation identify situations that present potential conflicts of interest and to provide a procedure for appropriately managing conflicts in accordance with legal requirements and the goals of accountability and transparency in nonprofit governance.

1. Definition of Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest occurs when an individual's personal interests – family, friendships, financial, or social factors – could compromise his or her judgment, decisions, or actions in the workplace.

2. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

- a. After disclosure, the interested person shall leave the meeting while the conflict is discussed.
- b. The Board shall determine if a conflict exists.
- c. If a conflict exists, the Board shall determine the appropriate response, which may include recusal or disqualification from the vote.

4. Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy

If the Board has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the individual and allow an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If warranted, the Board may take disciplinary action.

5. Annual Statements

Each director, officer, and member of a committee with Board-delegated powers shall annually sign a statement affirming that they have received a copy of this policy, read and understood it, and agree to comply with it.
